

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 24, 2025

The 2025 London Fringe Festival Lineup is Set!

LONDON, ON – The highly anticipated 2025 London Fringe Festival is back and ready to take over the city from August 12-16, 2025! Hosted by the Palace Theatre Arts Commons, this year's festival is set to showcase an electrifying mix of performances from local, national and international artists.

Following the official draw on Wednesday, March 19, 15 incredible productions are poised to bring their creativity to life in five venues across the downtown core. Audiences can expect an eclectic mix of theatre, music, comedy, dance, and magic, promising bold storytelling and boundary-pushing performances.

The London Fringe Festival is an open-access, unjuried festival that champions artistic freedom, allowing performers to take risks and audiences to discover raw, unfiltered and unexpected storytelling. The mission of the London Fringe is to support artists and bring innovative performances to the community.

August 12-16, 2025

90 Performances, 15 Productions, 5 Venues, Endless Entertainment

Venues:

Palace Theatre, David Long Stage
Palace Theatre, Procuiner Hall
Theatre London, Auburn Stage

100 Kellogg Lane

**confirming final venue*

Performers:

- |                    |  |                  |
|--------------------|--|------------------|
| 1. Una Roulston    | Daddy's Girl                      | One-Act Play     |
| 2. Bella Baldin    | The Ballad of Blair               |                  |
| 3. Maria Colonescu | The Companion                     | Two Person Drama |
| 4. Tony Molesworth | Mystic Music and Comedy                  | Music and Comedy |
| 5. Isaac Atfield   | Would You Like Some Tea?          | Drama            |
| 6. Ryan Brown      | The Magic of Ryan Brown                  | Magic Show       |
| 7. Dorukhan Turan  | The Light of the East- Asia Minor | Music            |

PALACE Theatre

ARTS COMMONS

8. Jenn Weatherall	No Lilies	Drama
9. Richmond Osabu	Sweet Melodies from Africa	Afro Boys' Band
10. John Palmer	Shrink Wrapped Murder	Murder-Mystery
11. Graeme Taylor	Interactive Gameshow
12. Andrew Olmstead	The Magic Show	Magic Show
13. Randy Ross	Tales of a Reluctant World Traveler	One-Man Show
14. Yuiry Popov	The Turing Test	Drama/Comedy
15. Haysham Ali	The Vampire of Rio

For full Festival details, including show schedules, venue locations and ticket sales, visit <https://palacetheatre.ca/london-fringe/>

Kelli Gough
London Fringe Festival Organizer

About Palace Theatre Arts Commons

The Palace Theatre Arts Commons is a community-focused, volunteer-driven theatre in London, dedicated to enriching lives through accessible and diverse arts programming. As an arts hub, it offers a wide range of performances, workshops and events that foster connection, creativity and inclusivity.

For more information, please contact:
Melissa Parker, Executive Director
mparker@ptaclondon.ca
226-927-1588
palacetheatreartscommons.ca